Attractions & Things to do on PHUKET ISLAND

Phuket is Thailand's largest island, and arguably the most famous. Blue waters, sandy beaches, spicy Thai cuisine, and excellent snorkeling and diving are all part of the appeal. Arriving from all over the world, travelers flock to Phuket for relaxation and adventure, and the island rates as one of the most popular destinations in Thailand.

CATCH SOME RAYS AT PATONG BEACH

You'll find plenty of shopping and activity to keep you entertained.

DISCOVER THE PAST AT PHUKET TOWN

Make sure you stroll through the streets of Old Phuket Town, with its well-preserved shophouses, Sino-Portuguese mansions, temples, and shrines.

EXPERIENCE ISLAND BOAT TOURS

Go on a guided boat tour and experience the islands' unique limestone caves.

GO DIVING & SNORKELING

The waters around Phuket Island offer some of the best diving and snorkeling in Thailand, with typically excellent conditions.

VISIT PHUKET BIG BUDDHA

Sitting serenely above the island at the top of Nakkerd hills between Kata and Chalong, the Phuket Big Buddha is one of the island's most distinctive landmarks.

WAT CHALONG

Wat Chalong is the largest, most popular, and arguably the most beautiful of all Phuket's 29 temples.

SHOP FOR FOOD AND SOUVENIRS AT PHUKET'S MARKETS

A mix of tourist attraction, street food destination, and bargaining heaven, markets are a must-visit when you're in Phuket.

ENJOY NATURE AT SIRINAT NATIONAL PARK

Sirinath National Park reveals a quieter side of this touristy isle. The 90-square kilometer coastal park sits on the island's northwest coast and is largely made up of marine areas, including four relatively unspoiled beaches.
